

Sunday,
July 22, 2018

The books of 1 and 2 Chronicles are a sermon to the Jews after exile, to give them hope.

In preparation for today's sermon, you were asked to read 2 Chronicles 5-7, with special attention to 2 Chronicles 7:11-22.

The question asked was, How might this message from God give hope to the Jews--and to us?

As we worship together this morning, we welcome each one of you and pray that God's word will bless us today and in the week to come.

Prayer— After the service we welcome you to come forward and someone will pray with you.

Coffee- Join us for coffee and conversation immediately following the service.

TO OUR GUESTS AND VISITORS: This bulletin should give you a sampling of what we are all about. For more information please visit our welcome centre in the entrance area or use the contact information on the back of this bulletin.

Grace Vangangelen was hospitalized last weekend with a kidney infection. It was very serious, but she has been able to return home and continues to recuperate there. Grace and Ted would be blessed by our prayers and support at this time.

Thank you so much for all the prayers you prayed on my brother's behalf and that of our family. The partnership of a praying community is such an incredible blessing and so I thank God for all of you. God, in his unfailing love and mercy has been gracious in Sid's healing and is making him stronger every day. Please do continue to pray for Sid as he still has a long road ahead. ~Carol Sybenga
